2011 Summary of Activities (through January 2012)

- What are the committee's goals for 2012?
 - Continue to solicit worthy nominees for Fellow and Honorary Member awards.
- List the committee's accomplishments (through January 2012):
 - In order to have a robust nomination slate, the Chair contacted committee members and encouraged them to consider and secure nominations from their regions. She also contacted the nominators of the candidates from the prior award year to encourage them to re-nominate their candidates. Eight nominations were received, all of whom were ranked qualified and worthy of being named Fellows. The three top ranked ones were unanimously approved by the committee. One nomination was received for Honorary Member, but the committee determined that the nomination was not acceptable as the nominee was an assistant professor who was nominated by a student.
